MOT DE LA FONDATRICE DE MTLRD,

En avril 2006, j'ai convoqué une bande d'inconnu.e.s aux Foufounes Électriques pour une réunion, dans le but d'établir, à Montréal, les bases d'une chose appelée « roller derby ».

J'avais peur que personne ne se pointe et, au départ, il semblait bien que personne n'était venu. Puis mon amie Marie (que vous connaissez sous le surnom de TRASH N' SMASH) est arrivée. Finalement, 14 personnes de toutes les couches de la société sont venues former le regroupement d'individus le plus improbable que je n'avais jamais rencontré. Ces 14 personnes sont devenues les premières pionnières de Montréal Roller Derby.

Les débuts étaient houleux, alors que nous naviguions en territoires inconnus. Nous avons improvisé au fur et à mesure. D'une gang de passionnées de patin à roulettes, nous avons fini par former l'une des meilleures ligues de roller derby au monde. Nous sommes venues de loin et nous ne sommes pas près d'avoir fini. Il y a eu tellement de gens qui ont contribué au succès de cette ligue au cours des années et ils devraient tous briller de fierté.

Je voulais jouer au roller derby pour appartenir à quelque chose de cool, rencontrer des nouveaux.elle.s ami.e.s et éviter mes travaux universitaires. J'ignorais alors la place que cela allait occuper dans ma vie pour plus d'une dizaine d'années et comment ça allait contribuer à former la personne que je suis aujourd'hui.

Ce fut ma communauté, mon entreprise, ma passion et ça a occupé littéralement plus de 95% de ma vie. Je n'ai pas joué ces 4 dernières saisons (oh mon Dieu, déjà?!), mais j'y pense encore à tous les jours. Au fil des ans, j'ai appris des leçons essentielles et développé des habiletés que je vais utiliser toute ma vie. Je voulais faire partie de quelque chose de l'un, mais j'ai eu le privilège de prendre part à beaucoup plus que ça.

In April 2006, I called a meeting with a bunch of strangers at Foufounes Électriques to start up a thing called roller derby in Montreal. I was scared that nobody would show up. Nobody showed up, at first. Then my pal Marie (you know her as TRASH N' SMASH) arrived. Eventually, 14 folks showed up from all walks of life, and probably the most random group of people I have ever met. Those 14 people became the first pioneers of Montreal Roller Derby in the early early days.

Those early days were rocky as we covered uncharted territory. We made it up as we went along, and went from being a gang of roller skate enthusiasts to being one of top leagues in the world. We have come along way and are not even close to being finished. There have been so many people that have contributed to the success of this league over the years, and they should all be beaming with pride.

I wanted to play roller derby to be a part of something cool, meet some new friends, and avoid my university homework. Little did I know it would be a part of my life for 10+ years, and that it would shape who I am today. It was my community, my business, my passion, and literally took up 95% of my life. I haven't played for the last four seasons (omg, already?!), but still think about it every single day. Over the years, I learned valuable lessons and gained skills that I will use for my whole life. I wanted to be a part of something fun, and was privileged to be a part of something that was so much more.

XOXO
TUSH
